Christian Life Church Children's Ministry Team

*And [Jesus] said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.
Luke 9:48 (KJV)*

Purpose

The Children's Ministry of Christian Life Church aims to connect each child who attends our programs to Jesus by experiencing His love, believing in Him, and growing to be like Him as seen through their ability to accept and confess Him as their Savior and Lord and function as a part of His Body, the Church.

Ministry Programs

- Nursery—care and supervision of infants and toddlers.
- Sunday School/Small Groups—Connect groups for children that include age-appropriate Bible study and learning activities.
- Children's Church—Celebration services for kids that include age-appropriate Worship, Bible teaching, and fun applications

Team Members

- Director—the coordinator and supervisor of the Children's Ministry Team and all its events, programs, and functions.
- Coordinator—a leader who is responsible for oversight of a specific Children's Ministry event, program, or function.
- Leader—an adult (21+) team member who is responsible to perform a certain Children's Ministry leadership duty.
- Assistant—a team member who is responsible for assisting a Children's Ministry Leader in performing their duty.
- Helper—a teen or adult (12+) team member who helps a Children's Ministry event, program, or function by fulfilling a certain responsibility.

Code of Conduct

1. Love—Minister as an act of “Loving God, Loving Others, and Living It Out” (Matt. 22:37-40; Col. 3:23).
2. Maturity—Demonstrate Christ-like character in attitude and behavior (Eph. 4:13-15).
3. Respect—Show courtesy to children, parents, other team members, and those in authority (Matt. 7:12; Eph. 4:29; Heb. 13:17).
4. Faithfulness—Be prepared for and fulfill responsibilities (1 Pet. 3:15; Luke 16:10).
5. Focus—Keep ministry the top priority and center of attention (1 Tim. 4:15).

Dress Code

1. All clothes must reflect Christian principles of decency.
2. Dress should be at least “smart casual” during church services.
3. Pants are appropriate that are not too tight or too baggy.
4. No sleeveless or low-cut shirts, such as tank tops, are permitted.
5. No short skirts or short pants are allowed.

Team Guidelines

1. All persons wishing to serve on Christian Life Church’s Children’s Ministry Team must be a born-again Christian who has registered with the Ministry Team Director.
2. Team Members wishing to become a Leader should submit a Team Member Form and complete Classes 101-301, to be equipped as a member and minister at Christian Life Church, and will qualify as a Helper upon submitting a form and as an Assistant upon completing Class 101.
3. Team Members should attend Christian Life Church’s weekly and special services, seminars and workshops, and Children’s Ministry Team meetings on a regular basis in order to ensure their own spiritual growth, maturity, and training.
4. Team Members must be prepared for and fulfill the specific duty that they agreed to perform at a Ministry Program, such as performing a specific task, teaching specific material, or supervising a specific group of children, and, to avoid confusion or neglect, should confirm with their Coordinator or the Team Director in advance if they are going to do something else, be absent, late, or leave early.
5. To ensure child safety and avoid confusion, unauthorized persons (adults, teens, or children) at a Ministry Program are not allowed to remain without permission of the Team Director, including Team Members not assigned to the program.

To register, please complete the attached Team Member Form, sign, date, detach, and return to the Children’s Ministry Director of Christian Life Church.
